

Associate members and playing conditions

Please note the description of this type of membership in the club constitution.

- Associate members may practise at any time when the courts are free at no cost, except when lights are used and then $3 per person
- If a member invites a non-member that person needs to pay a lawn fee of $5
- Associates can arrange to obtain a club key by contacting the club secretary.
- Associates are not eligible to play in club championships

11th February 2020